Late/Day of Show Entries:

As of 9/1, there is currently room available all days, all levels. Late and day of show entries may be available depending on entry counts at the time. Day of show entries must be turned in no later than 1 hour before the start of the trials. I'm staying on site so feel free to message me if you have an entry!

Wait-List & Pulled Entries:

As of 9/1, there is no waitlist. If you need to pull you may receive a refund/credit as per the policy listed in the premium. We will NOT be substituting entries for handlers who do not check in, you will be marked as absent if you miss your runs and the class closes out. Written notice (email or in person) must be given by 7am on the morning of the trial for all pulled entries in order to be eligible for a refund. See the premium for more information on the pull & refund policies.

If applicable, we will shut down the pre-trial waitlist at 11:59pm on Thursday. After that, if you are on the waitlist, you are welcome to show up the morning of the trial to see if there are any last minute pulls from Friday / after. It is not guaranteed that pulls will be able to be replaced by a waitlisted run. It is not guaranteed that there will be runs available for waitlisted dogs on the day of the show. It is not guaranteed that there will be runs available for dogs on the day of the show.

Schedule:

8:00am – Area will open. Check-in estimated to start at 8:30am.

9:00am - General Briefing and Handler Briefings to follow.

Runs for each judge to start after handler briefings.

A lunch and other breaks may be taken at the judge's and/or club's discretion.

Worker/judge dogs may be run before the briefing.

Class Order:

The exact running order for dogs will be fluid and dependent on search areas, conflicts, worker dogs, etc. Pre-entry counts are listed on the next page.

Interior will start with Master and work down in levels.

Exterior will start with Novice and work up in levels.

Buried/Container will start with Advanced and Excellent.... but please see the additional notes below!

- We are hoping to have all four levels of Buried and Container set up so that you can work those in around your Interior / Exterior runs and the rest of the ECKC show. The plan is to have those available between 9-

12noon. Be sure to check in to run Buried & Container before 12noon. (It may run later depending on entries but if there is no line they'll be shut down at noon.)

But What Time Will My Class Start?

We get a lot of questions on "when will my class start" for trials. We cannot give out times other than the start of the first class of the day. However, here is a way for you to estimate when your class MAY start running:

In the Regulations for AKC Scent Work (on the AKC website under "Scent Work" "Regulations Resources"), page 18 under Chapter 3 Section 22 it lists an estimated time per entry per class/level.

Above, we give entry counts as of the pre-entry closing along with the order the classes will run.

You can multiply out the estimated judging time per run x the entries in each class to get a rough estimate. However, please note that this doesn't include absent dogs, move-ups, day-of-show/late entries, judge breaks, lunch breaks, etc. And runs don't always last the "estimated" judging time per run. There are no refunds/credits/moves for missed runs. Calculate at your own risk!

Conflicts:

We would like to accommodate each and every conflict but sometimes that is impossible and you may have to make a choice. Please notify us of your conflict BEFORE we are running your class so we can discuss how to best accommodate.

We cannot hold a class.

If you are not present by the time your class ends, you will not be able to run your dog in that class for that trial. A missed run cannot be moved to another day. Missed runs are not eligible for a refund.
